Dear Sirs:

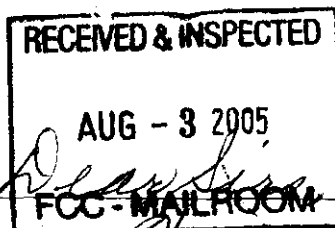

I am a senior citizen and have my name on the list of "No Call", have had for quite sometime. I have notified them again also call phone co. I have an answering machine and I get from 4 - 12 "no one there" calls a day. The operator comes on, "If you'd like to make a call etc", she says it twice so you try listening or not listening to that day after day. The calls say nothing so I don't know who's calling. The calls start around 7:30 AM and sometimes goes until 9:15 PM.

We have had the same phone # for 56 yrs. I don't feel charging # would stop them. I have disconnected the phone, took receiver off the hook. Don't know what else to do only have the phone taken out but that is no good as I have a heart condition and I need my phone.

With regard to Wisconsin's Do Not Call Law, please leave it alone. It has done wonders to eliminate the harassment we all had from telemarketers. It's a good law and it puts us, as consumers, first + not the big telemarketers.

Again, please let us have our law which protects Wisconsin citizens better than the weaker federal Do Not Call Law. Thank you.

DO NOT let them do away with the WI. No call list!!!

In my opinion the conditions of the list should be tighter.

In this great country of ours we can pretty much do what we want except if it is illegal, immoral, or interferes with the rights of others. Receiving unsolicited phone calls at all hours of the day and night clearly interferes with my rights. If I want information or services from a company, I will call them.

Re: Docket 02-278

Dear Sir/Madam:

I would like to express my extreme displeasure at hearing the No Call law is at risk of being repealed. I do not want nor do I need telemarketing calls at my home. These calls are very invasive. If I want a product I will seek it out at my convenience, not theirs. I do not call telemarketers at their homes to try to push my ideas or services to them on their personal time. I also believe the political campaign calls that are so frequent around election times should be banned as well.

I feel very strongly about protecting my privacy. When I am at home I do not want to be bothered by what a total stranger considers to be important to them. If the product or campaign is so very important to them, let them buy it or back it, not me.

Thank you for considering my opinion on this very personal issue.

Sincerely,

Candace Black

For the past few years my family has been spared the nuisance phone calls that used to come every evening from a wide variety of phone banks. The people were trying to sell us "free trips", insurance, new phone services, cable TV etc, ad infinitum. We never bought anything, because we know our own minds and know how to buy whatever we need or want.

Then the Wisconsin No Call List was instituted and suddenly we had dinner without interruption, no intrusions from high pressure sales people and con-men and lower blood pressure. I was also assured the my parents who are 88 and 86 were much less likely to be scammed out of their small savings by people posing as fake charities or religious groups, who have taken them for money in the past.

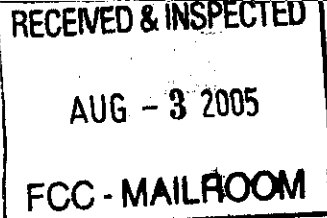

Now we hear that you are thinking about appeasing some phone bank companies to once again let them intrude on our lives. KINDLY RESIST. It will once again profit the few at the expense of the many.

I always thought that Republicans were supposed to be for as little national government as possible, for state control, local decision making, individual freedom. Allowing these predators to once again enter our homes without our permission may be good for a few businesses, but it is bad for the voting citizens. The Federal law is weak, bordering on the useless. It does not provide me with the protections I want and my parents need. Please allow the Wisconsin No Call List to continue.

RE: NO CALL LIST!!

To Whom It May Concern:

Please, keep the Wisconsin Do Not Call list as is. Do not take it away. I live in a household of 10 where 1/3 of the people speak fluent English, 1/3 speaks broken English, and 1/3 no English. Before the Do Not Call List, I would have to screen these telemarketers and interest groups and eventually hang up on them. They would usually call, ask for one of my family members and that family member will get sucked into something they have no idea what they're saying yes to then I would have to clean up the problem. It annoys me every single day that I would have to explain to these telemarketers that the person they're asking for does not speak English, they'll hang up, then someone from that same company will call back the next day asking for the same person.

My phone's been quiet ever since I've signed up for the Wisconsin No Call List. I would like to keep it that way. I have families living in Michigan who are listed under the Federal No Call list and they're still getting telemarketing calls day and night. This tells me that the Wisconsin No Call List is working for it's constituents in Wisconsin while the Federal No Call list isn't effective at all.

Please don't let the special interest groups push into taking this away from the common average person. If they really want us to look as their product, there's always junk mail.

I am writing this letter to urge you and the Federal Communications Commission to keep Wisconsin's No Call List Law strong so we can continue keeping our home phones quiet.

As Wisconsin consumers, we totally value our home privacy and do not want to lose our right to privacy from intrusive, incessant, time-consuming, and maddeningly annoying telemarketing calls -- many times waking us up too early in the morning or late at night or interrupting meals. We appreciate very much the Wisconsin No Call List. Since the list was put into service we are no longer bombarded with telemarketers from the time we get home from work at night until bedtime. We want you to leave the Wisconsin No Call List alone. You can tell all of the banks and credit card companies that we do not do that kind of business over the phone. They intrude on our free time and we do not appreciate their calls.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am a resident of Wisconsin and greatly appreciate the RELIEF the Division of Trade & Consumer Protection
No Call List has provided to my family from telemarketers.

It has come to my attention that a coalition of telemarketing firms and non-profit corporations who use telemarketers has petitioned the FCC to declare that states have no ability to regulate interstate telemarketing, only intrastate telemarketing. Please do not uphold this petition! Such a ruling would allow telemarketers to avoid state regulation merely by calling from outside the state, which would effectively end state regulation of telemarketing entirely. Wisconsin residents have made their preference known in huge numbers on this issue by signing up for Wisconsin's No Call List. Please help us avoid the constant invasion of privacy and harassment of telemarketers!

In any case, it would be futile to allow telemarketers to start calling us again. I have instructed my entire family to just hang up on telemarketers. They won't make any sales to us! Most friends and relatives tell me that they do the same. Many persons also have caller ID now, and they simply won't answer the phone when telemarketers call. We have even stopped making donations to charities when they contact us by phone, because the number of phone calls became a nuisance. Also, a recent Reader's Digest article advised NOT to give to charities using telemarketers, since the telemarketer's fee could consume up to 50% of one's donation!

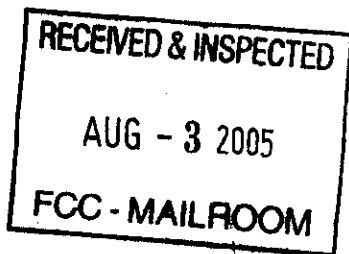

If firms wish to contact us, let them do so by regular mail. This gives Wisconsin residents the choice to examine their information without constant harassment, pressure or interruption. We do peruse sales literature sent by mail, but refuse to speak with telemarketers! Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Joe Stellato

KEEP THE NO CALL LIST!

Dear DATCAP:

Please, please, please keep the Wisconsin "no call" list in addition to the Federal list. The Federal Communications Commission should leave our list along. We need the assurance that the Federal list won't be voted out by a congress bought off by corporate donor support from major telemarketers.

Yes, this can happen. As I type this tonight, the US Congress works on a bill favored by the National Rifle Association to protect gun manufacturers and sellers. This bill is not in the interest of the typical US citizen, but is pushed by this powerful lobby. Why? Just look at the huge amounts of money poured into campaigns by the NRA.

I can only imagine what would happen to my evenings if the no call list went away. I would once again hear telemarketers interrupt our dinners, conversations, and quiet nights of reading. I want my home to be an oasis from the onslaught of corporate messages that permeate our culture. Add my name to the supporters of the Wisconsin list.

Sincerely,

Kathleen A. Loy

Gentlemen:

I am a 77 yr old Widower living alone. Until the No Call Law Wisconsin Instituted, I was constantly harassed by telemarketers, esp. at supper time & being an early riser, I go to Bed Early - seems like I would just get to sleep & the phone would ring, waking me up - Since the "Do not Call Law" (which I signed up for twice) I am hardly ever bothered!!

Please leave our "Wisconsin Do Not Call Law" alone.

Sincerely,
J E Berg

My Comment to the FCC

Please keep the "no call" rule
as it is as overseen by the state of Wis.
I understand the Fed. law pertaining to the "no call" is more lenient.

Subject: RE: Federal-State Joint Board on Universal Service -- Docket 96-45

Dear The Federal Communications Commission:

Congratulations on your appointment to Chair the FCC. In your new leadership role, I urge you to support the "Fair Share Plan" as a solution to current concerns with the Universal Service Fund (USF). The Fair Share Plan will keep the USF fair, ensuring that consumers like me do not pay the same rate into the USF as big businesses, regardless of how little I may use long distance.

The Keep USF Fair Coalition submitted the Fair Share Plan to the FCC on January 31, 2005. It expands who pays into the USF so that other technologies - not just phones - pay into the system. The Fair Share Plan collects the USF using a combination numbers- and revenue-based plan. This keeps the system fair, equitable and non-discriminatory.

Under the flat fee or numbers-based plan you are considering, people like me who make few long distance calls would pay the same as people or businesses that make many calls. I believe it would be unfair to charge low-volume and residential customers the same fees as high-volume residential or business customers.

I urge you to keep the USF fair, and adopt the Fair Share Plan. Thank you, and best of luck in your new position.

Lori Travis
